Details of the event:

The project team together with the president of Universal Patient Rights Association Emete İmge have visited the head doctor of Dr Burhan Nalbantoğlu State Hospital, Dr Bülent Dizdarlı on 11th of October in order to discuss ways of collaboration.

As a result of the meeting Dr Dizdarlı has agreed for the project to hang the frames of posters showing 14 patient rights to every unit of the hospital. In addition to that Dr Dizdarlı also agreed the "get well soon" cards to be handed out to the cardiology patients (most populated department of the hospital) and for Project Manager İzlem Sönmez and Advocacy and Communication Officer Beran Dağtaş to introduce the patient rights to the patients.

In accordance to the meeting İzlem Sönmez and Beran Dağtaş have visited to hospital on 26th October 2016 (Patient Rights Day celebrated in north Cyprus in Turkey) with 10 framed posters and handed them to the deputy head doctor Dr. Adil Özyılkan. The ceremony was filmed by BRTK. The project team then proceeded to visit the patients at the cardiology department. "Get well soon cards" were handed out to patients and the project was introduced to 20 patients and their relatives.

The press coverage of the event was very successful. TAK has published the event's pre and post press releases as BRTK has filmed the event and aired the footage including a short interview with Beran Dağtaş as part of lunch time and night time news. In addition to this UPRA president Emete İmge was a guest on BRTK lunch time news and Genc TV on Aysu Basri Akter's program.

Project Manager İzlem Sönmez was mentioned on Levent Özadam's column on Kıbrıs Postası newspaper (both print and online). Özadam praised Ms Sönmez's efforts for forwarding the patients' rights in north Cyprus.
